

William Clayton Henderson, 16, of Boyertown R.D. 2, left, is being taken yesterday to an interrogation room in the Reading barracks of the Pennsylvania State Police by Sgt. Edward Strickland. Henderson will be charged today with murder in the slaying of State Trooper Philip C. Melley, 43, in a wooded area near Pine Forge. At right, Henderson is led away from the scene of the slaying. He is handcuffed to State Troopers Arthur MacAnally, right, and John A. Divine.—Staff Photo. (Other pictures on Pages 7 and 11.)